

Mentoring Teenage Men into Adulthood

Astonishing, creative, impulsive and always vibrant-that's the world of a teenage male. Intimidated?!? This workshop will empower parents and mentors of "teenage men" to draw out the best in their young charges. Conquer adult fears about interacting with youth and unleash the potential of the young man inside your boy. Enjoy these dynamic years by learning the principles for provocative mentoring which can revolutionize relationships with teenage males and radically impact their lives (and yours!!!)

Trainer: Kim Combes, LBSW, M. Ed.

Kim is a knowledgeable and experienced trainer in the areas of foster care and adoption. Along with being a foster and adoptive parent, he is a family therapist and provides training for DHS, churches, youth groups and other conferences nationally and statewide. He has written a training curriculum for the Child Welfare Institute of Atlanta, Georgia.