

IFAPA TRAINING

for foster, adoptive and kinship parents and workers

When Old Parenting Strategies Don't Work! Help Us Please!

This workshop will provide different ways to parent attachment difficult and traumatized children, adolescents, and young adults. It will look at basic information, therapeutic parenting techniques, the ACES survey and how it affects children, setting up therapeutic respite, working with biological children, the importance of the alliance between mom and dad, how to balance nurturing and structuring, and new information on testing your child. There will also be times to share in small groups, group activities, and ask questions. You will walk away with some tools to use or put on the shelf in case you need them.

Approved for 3 Hours of Foster Parent Credit
